In the name of Allaah, the Most Merciful, the Bestower of Mercy

Question: If one dies as a consequence of the effects of the evil eye, does he receive any privilege or extra rewards?

Shaykh Muhammad ibn Saalih al-'Uthaymeen (رَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ)¹: I do not know of extra rewards or privileges in such cases, for this is some kind of test by Allaah. However, it can be argued that death resulting from evil eye effects is comparable to death by drowning or burning. Whatever the status, we pray for good rewards to evil eye victims. Nevertheless, we cannot give a definite answer in this regard.
